

HOSPITALITY RIDER

PLEASE NOTE: The following hospitality requirements are intended to provide a comfortable and accommodating environment for the Artist and ensure a smooth and successful performance. Certain requirements may vary depending on the nature and location of the engagement. If any of the following items cannot be provided, please contact Rick Ricketts at (775) 233-3024 in advance to discuss suitable alternatives.

1. DRESSING ROOM

Purchaser shall provide a clean, well-lit, private dressing room or designated backstage area located as close to the performance stage as reasonably possible. The area shall include adequate seating for five (5) performers, at least one electrical outlet, a mirror, and convenient access to restroom facilities..

2. BEVERAGES

The following beverages shall be available to the Artist upon arrival:

- One (1) case of bottled spring water
- Two (2) six-packs of assorted soft drinks
- Assorted fruit juices, including cranberry, orange, and apple
- Ice and drinking cups as needed

3. FOOD AND REFRESHMENTS

Purchaser shall provide the following refreshments:

- One (1) deli tray featuring assorted meats and cheeses
- Assorted breads, crackers, and appropriate condiments

4. DINNER

Purchaser shall provide dinner for Five (5) performers on the day of the engagement. Dinner arrangements, including catering, restaurant accommodations, or a mutually agreed-upon meal buyout, shall be coordinated in advance.

5. TOWELS

Five (5) clean towels shall be provided for the Artist's use during the performance.

6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

All hospitality items should be available prior to the Artist's scheduled soundcheck unless otherwise arranged. Any proposed substitutions or modifications to these requirements should be discussed and approved in advance.

For questions or coordination of hospitality arrangements, please contact:

Rick Ricketts
Life in the Fast Lane® - A Tribute to the Eagles
Phone: (775) 233-3024

Purchaser: _____

Dated: _____